

KLOVE provides a positive and encouraging message to the community as a whole. It offers hope, family counsel, free public service announcements, suicide counseling, and individual counseling. The effect of what is taught - results in a more well rounded and community minded individual. The emphasis is on serving your fellow man- rather than yourself. Without this call to community service, our area would experience a great loss. The challenge and the suggestions given are just what our community need.